

DMCE CENTRAL LIBRARY

Airoli, Navi Mumbai

Library Orientation program

The introduction of the library to users is more important. Users are often intimidated by the size of the library, feel inadequate because they lack knowledge about where items and services are located in the building and are uncomfortable with accessing resources and asking questions to library staff. Library orientation exercises designed so that students can successfully combat these feelings.

PPT